

DECLARATION OF LIABILITY

PoleQueens Exotic Pole Dance Championship

22nd October, 2023

The performer certifies that they have read and accept all the terms and conditions of the event organized by the Arts for Pole Sport Foundation.

The performer participates in the championship at their own responsibility, and they take the liability for any damage or injury. They certify that they have a medical certificate valid for the duration of the event, which proves that their state of health is impeccable and suitable for performing and doing sports. In addition, the organizers drew the attention of the performer to the fact that they should have valid sports accident insurance during the event, if they fail to do so, it is also their responsibility, and they are obliged to pay for the damages suffered by themselves. They declare that they will bear the costs and consequences of any injury or accident.

The performer is aware of and certifies by accepting this document that they consent to the making of visual and audio recordings (including backstage recordings) of them during the event organized by the Arts for Pole Sport Foundation, and to the subsequent use and publication by the organizers for the promotion of the event or other marketing purposes related to the competition, and waives any compensation in connection therewith, as stipulated in the competition rules.

Budapest, 22nd October, 2023.